COMPANY L WILL ORGANIZE A FAST BASEBALL NINE

Former Manager of Browns To Pilot Team. First Game with Santa Fe Guardsmen Meeting Tomorrow.

Another ball club is about to spring up in the ring. Company L, New Mexico National Guard, is forming a nine that is expected to make considerable of a splash here and elsewhere.

First Sergeant E. R. Baas, who is former manager of the old Albuquerque Browns, is to pilot the team. He has a goodly store of fast material in sight, he says, and expects to put a combination in the field that will bring glory to Company L. Baas, Roco and Tartaglione are available for hurling, and there are good men in the company for the backstop and fielding jobs.

It is expected that a team meeting will be held tomorrow night. On Saturday night the company is to give a ball for the benefit of the nine.

The first game will be played against Company E of Santa Fe, at the Ancient City. Manager Baas has a challenge from E company, and an acceptance will be sent. In action here the guardsmen will perform on Hopewell field or at Traction park.

Says His Heating Job is no Good and possibly he is right. Many jobs are put in at too low a price—simply can't be done right. Other jobs are put in by men who do not really know their business.

A large part of our work is correcting heating mistakes of others. Our men are competent, painstaking and courteous.

If you had trouble last winter now is the time to phone 511 or call at 201 East Central and see about having the trouble corrected.

Estimates on any kind of work are freely given.

RITCHIE MAKES STIFF TERMS FOR BATTLE WITH WELSH IN LONDON

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]
Chicago, May 21.—Willie Ritchie, champion lightweight, today received word that London promoters had accepted his terms for a match in the British capital with Freddie Welsh, the English fighter. Ritchie said he would sign articles as soon as they reached him. His demands included a guarantee of $12,000 or 5 per cent of the gross receipts, $16,000 for the "advertising rights" and $10,000 for the moving picture rights, a total of $38,000. The date has not been set.

LINING 'EM OUT

Catcher Richardson, who is up for trial by the Giants, is rated a raving good man by McGraw, but he has developed a bum average in linguistics. He introduced himself as a Cuban, but when Pepe Conte tried him out he furnished a dozen choices in Spanish. Now Conte insists that he is a Mexican.

There were only two pitchers in the National league in the last two years who pitched more innings than Mathewson. Alexander led him in that regard in 1912, and Seaton did the same in 1913. But it was by Manager Dooin working those two pitchers so frequently that spoiled the chances the Phillies had to win the pennant. Matty can pitch more innings and with less strain on himself than any other pitcher in the country.

Irving Kantisheen, the new left-handed pitcher of the Pirates, is a big favorite of replacement who has made friends of every man on the club. His earnestness appealed to Wagner at the start and Hand is his roommate. Kantisheen was an aspirant in a church at San Jose, Cal., before coming here. Because of his success as a pitcher he talked at the efforts of his people to send him to a seminary to study for the Lutheran ministry.

Branch Rickey, however, has shogn how to make a success of preaching and baseball in communion.

Says the New York Evening Sun: "Some of our Beaverton friends would have it that John Evers has retarded the progress of the Boston Braves. They say that Evers is not playing up to the mark and that the team would have been better off if Bill Sweeney had been retained. Evers has a peculiar disposition which, the gossips in Boston say, has not appealed to other members of the Stalling troupe. But to offset this, Messrs. Gaffey and Stallings declare that they have no fault to find with the former Cub manager."

One expert says that Jim Coffey has improved so much he is entitled to called a heavyweight fighter instead of a white hope.

Kansas will need 40,000 extra hands. Chance for the Reds to dispose of its cast-offs.

Judging from the greatly improved work of Big George McMillan, of the Pirates, and Slim Caldwell, of the Yanks, which is credited to their good condition, they must have spent the off-season in company with Billy Sunday or Branch Rickey.

A Matter of a Comm.

"Bill," the poet gaped, staring into his friend's room.

"Why, what's wrong?" the friend enquired, starting as he grasped hold of the tottering man.

"Wrong," the poet muttered. "Ye gods! I wrote a poem about my little boy. I began the first verse with these lines:

"My son! My pigmy counterpart."

"Yes? Yes?"

The poet drew a long breath as he took a newspaper from his pocket.

"Read!" he blazed suddenly. See what that criminal compositor did to my opening line.

The friend read aloud:

"My son! my pig, my counterpart."

In National Monthly.

When McGraw parted with Hank Green, and Ted Ames for Arthur Fromme he lost one of the greatest little second basemen in the business and got little in return. In giving up Herzog it may be that he gave up whatever else he had on his fourth straight pennant. Yes, the best of them get stung sometimes.

Raleigh Atchison at times appears to lack control, yet he is pitching near ball and has the looks of being a distinct addition to the Superbas pitching corps. Raleigh watches the bases closely, has a good motion when throwing to first, sneaks a bothersome underhand ball over once in a while and apparently has good nerve.

STRUGGLE WITH PROBLEM OF FINANCING CITY HALL

Mayor and Sub-Committee up Against Stiff Proposition in Funding Funds for Completing Much Needed Structure

MAY COMPLETE FIRST FLOOR TO SAVE RENT

Banks Said Not to Care for "Moral" Security and Bond Issue is Frowned on by the Tax Payer.

Some solution of the problem of financing the completion of the city hall may be evolved today, when Mayor Boatright and Councilman Ivan Gransfeld hold a sub-committee meeting. The mayor and Mr. Gransfeld were appointed by the councilmanic committee on the city hall at its session Tuesday afternoon to devise a plan for raising the money that will be required to bring the hall construction to completion.

No official statements have been made on the subject, but it is known that the committee has virtually no hope of raising the money needed on so-called "moral" security—that is, by means of a loan to be repaid in installments from the standing building fund as the cash becomes available. The building fund amounts to about $14,000 a year. Whoever loans the money on the so-called "moral" security will have no legal security for the bulk of the loan, because no council cannot bind a succeeding body. It is said that none of the banks is prepared to make a loan of that sort, and neither is anyone that the committee has heard of.

A bond issue is said to be the thing that the committee wants to consider, because the bonded indebtedness of the city is felt to be about as high as the taxpayers want to see it. It is said that a bond issue would certainly "raise a howl."
